Reserve Your Place Now At Friday Night Dinner Table

Back by popular demand, the Friday evening congregational Shabbat dinners resume October 21.

Co-chaired by Linda and Mel Matlins, these dinners are an eagerly anticipated monthly event at the synagogue, combining the elements of great fellowship and good food in an atmosphere of spiritual warmth.

Join in the welcoming of the Sabbath Queen at the Friday evening Service which begins at 5:45. Continue the tradition of the blessing of the children, kiddush and the motzi before the serving of the traditional meal. And what Sabbath is not welcomed without song?

This year six dinners are planned, one more than last year. The Matlins are assisted by a large and enthusiastic committee. Heading the various subcommittees are Miriam Wallerstein, Program; Nancy and Ray Treiger, Service; Miriam Brown and Syd Rothenberg, Reception; and Paula Finnell, Decor.

Reservations are limited and will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. Cost is $15 for an adult and $10 for a child, under the age of 13. All reservations must be prepaid. Send your check, made out to Park Avenue Synagogue, for the proper amount, with the reservation card you received in the mail, to the attention of Shabbat Dinner Committee, c/o the Synagogue Office, 50 East 87 St., New York, N.Y. 10128.

COME, — LET US STUDY TOGETHER IN THE SHERR INSTITUTE

Abba Eban To Deliver Sherr Lecture

S•R•O [Standing Room Only] is expected at the first Sherr Lecture which will be delivered by The Honorable Abba Eban, on Wednesday, October 5 at 8 P.M. and open to all members of the Synagogue. Ambassador Eban's topic, "The Meaning of Jewish History", is based upon the multi-part series on Jewish Civilization he developed for PBS which will be aired later this year.

This lecture is the inaugural event of the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies this year, and is made possible through the generosity of the Sherr family. At the reception which will follow the lecture, there will be an opportunity to meet Mr. Eban and the faculty of the Sherr Institute, as well as time to register for courses.

Mr. Eban was born in Cape Town, South Africa and raised in London, England. He took a triple first degree at Queen's College, Cambridge, and was appointed research fellow. On the establishment of the state of Israel in 1948, he was appointed its first permanent representative to the United Nations and, in 1950, its Ambassador to the United States.

In 1959 he returned to Israel where he was elected to the Knesset and was included in Ben Gurion's Cabinet, successively as minister of education and culture, deputy prime minister and foreign minister. In 1967 he was sent to negotiate with General Charles DeGaulle, Prime Minister Harold Wilson and President Lyndon Johnson. Those who heard it, either on radio or witnessed it over television, will never forget his ringing statement to the Security Council during the second day of the Six Day War.

President of the Weizmann Institute of Science from 1958 to 1966, Abba Eban is a member of the Institute of Advanced Study at Princeton, Fellow of the World Academy of Arts and Sciences and was a visiting professor at Columbia University in 1974.

Who studies in the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies, you ask? and what do they study?

A quick glance through the newly published brochure shows offerings in child development and in Talmud, in Hebrew Language and in Jewish Mysticism, in the social problems of conversion and in the celebrations of life with little ones. Whatever time is convenient for you is a good time to take a course in the Sherr Institute.

For example, Mrs. Carol Kekst is teaching three courses during the day for mothers and their very young children. Mrs. Vivian Finkel is teaching the Hebrew language on the beginners, intermediate and advanced level, mornings and afternoons. Mrs. Rahel F. Bloch is teaching a course in the evening in beginning Hebrew designed to enable the student to rapidly participate in synagogue services.

Rabbi Wechsler continues his teaching of Talmud, this term examining the Tractate Shabbat, those sections which discuss the laws of Hanukkah as well as the laws relating to the sanctity of human life.

Following the completion of the course in Talmud, Dr. Neil Gillman will teach a course in the same time slot on Milton Steinberg, on the 50th anniversary of his assuming the pulpit at Park Avenue Synagogue. A short course on Jewish Mysticism follows and in the spring Dr. Samuel Klagsbrun joins the faculty to give a course on "Jacob on The Couch".

Back by popular demand will be four sessions of Lunch 'N' Study with Rabbi Wechsler in the spring.

For parents of children in the Mazer School of Religious Studies there is a PEP program and a Bar/Bat Mitzvah Primer and a workshop with Nancy Samalin on how to communicate more effectively with your children.

Lucy Dawidowicz joins the Sherr Institute as a Scholar-In-Residence giving two lectures as part of the Shabbaton at the synagogue in January. Madeleine Cosman shares her love of the Medieval and Renaissance period in a lecture entitled appropriately "The Magnificence of Medieval Jewry".

A New Beginning

There are many ways to begin a day. Some people wake up easily, some need a long time to shake off their sleep. Others hardly ever wake up.

And there are many ways to begin a year. Some people begin quickly, filled with eager resolutions turned swiftly into reality. They are the few. Some hesitate time and again before they shake off their sleep. They are the many. Yet others never begin a New Year. To them, each New Year simply prolongs the year that has passed.

Which brings us to the month after Rosh Hashanah. This is the most crucial time. If any change will really take place, we shall likely know it this month. If there is to be a new beginning, it must materialize at about the time we begin reading the Torah again. If not now, the fires may dim and the year may not be really new at all.

How about the family this year? Any progress during the first month? How about commitment to Jewish observance? Any progress during the first month? How about Jewish education this year? Ready to begin in October?

An idea: Come to Abba Eban's lecture on October 5. It will be the kickoff of our Sherr Institute's program of studies this year. Mr. Eban will be speaking on "The Meaning of Jewish History," and you will not want to miss his words. If they prove to tempt you to continue studying throughout the year, then such temptation is good. It is the temptation of Paradise.

Abba Eban is timed for this critical month. If there be a new beginning or not depends, to a great extent, upon what happens now! And if not now, then when?

— Harlan J. Wechsler

Maimonides Revisited
Saturday Afternoons at 5

Every Saturday afternoon at 5 P.M., Rabbi Wechsler meets with a group of men and women for 45 minutes before services and explores some aspect of Jewish law with them.

Beginning October first, the first Shabbat after Sukkot, and continuing until Passover, Rabbi Wechsler will teach selections from Maimonides Mishneh Torah (Code of Jewish Law). Those laws which pertain to proper ethical behavior will be studied with an eye to the way in which Maimonides combined traditional Jewish views with a theory of psychology.

Make this year YOUR year to study on Saturday afternoons with Rabbi Wechsler. Come as often as you can, but come!

Introducing PEP For Parents At Park Avenue Synagogue

Introducing PEP, the Parents Education Program!

PEP is the answer to parents whose children are about to embark on their religious education and who come home asking questions, hard to answer questions.

PEP is an introduction to the philosophy of Jewish education, providing a glimpse of the major subject areas of study on an adult level to help enrich the educational experience of both child and parent.

PEP is fun.

PEP is free.

PEP is taught by Rabbi Wechsler, Mrs. Bloch and members of the faculty and limited to those parents of children enrolled in Prozdor, Mekhina and Alef.

PEP is available Sunday mornings in the fall beginning October 23 at 10 A.M. and Tuesday evenings in the spring beginning January 10 at 8 P.M.

For more information, consult the Sherr Institute brochure, or the School Office, or your child's teacher.

Join In The Fun! Come To Club 87 Events

Club 87 invites the young men and women of the congregation, their friends and other young singles of the community age 21 - 31 to their next Coffee House, Wednesday, October 12 at 7:15 P.M.

Light refreshment, good music and a congenial atmosphere in which to meet new friends is the hallmark of these ever increasingly popular Coffee Houses. A $3 admission charge helps to defray expenses.

On Sunday, October 23 at 7 P.M., the Club plans to hold a wine and cheese reception. This event is also strictly social with only a pleasant time as its goal. Admission is $4 and advanced reservations would be a help in planning.

For more information on these and future Club 87 events, please call the chairman, Lewis Surrey, at 722-7515.

WANTED

Ushers sought to fill a few vacancies on the Ushers Committee. No prior experience needed. On the job training. Those interested in volunteering for this all important committee, please contact our Executive Director, Barrie Modlin, at 369-2600, during business hours.

Submit Your Favorite Recipe To Our Very Own Cookbook

Here is your opportunity to see your name in print! Parents Association has embarked on a new project and asks members of the congregation to take part.

Do you have a favorite recipe that you love to make and everyone loves to eat? Then share it with us and submit it for publication in the Park Avenue Synagogue Cookbook.

The more recipes submitted, the better selection the committee can make in producing a truly unique kosher cookbook. Recipes for hors d'oeuvres, soups, main courses, desserts and everything in-between are eagerly sought. So jot down your favorite recipe(s) today and send them, with your name and telephone number, to the attention of Carol Weber at the Synagogue, c/o Parents Association, 50 East 87 Street, New York City 10128.

CONGREGATION RESPONDS TO KOL NIDRE APPEAL

As we stated on Kol Nidre, our Synagogue belongs to all of us and we all must be responsible for its well being. Therefore, we should have 100% participation in the Kol Nidre Appeal. It does not seem fair that the few carry the entire burden while we all enjoy the benefits. Please join with your fellow congregants and generously participate by making your contribution today.

Thank you, and we wish you all once again, a Happy and Healthy New Year.

SCHOOL NEWS

Students of the Religious School thoroughly enjoyed their trip to the Etrog and Lulav Market on the Lower East Side in preparation for the celebration of Sukkot. The Daled and Hey graders had the opportunity to shake the lulav at their dinner in the Gerald and May Ellen Ritter Sukkah on the fourth day of Hol Ha-Moed.

The congregation is invited to join the families of the Alef Grade at Consecration of the Alef Graders at the first Family Service of the New Year, Friday, November 5 at 6:15 P.M.

It is not too soon to think about BOOK FAIR 5744. Begin and/or enlarge your Jewish home library at BOOK FAIR 5744. Joan Schreiber, Chairman, is asking for volunteers to help her and her committee make this BOOK FAIR the best ever! Call her at 534-8431. BOOK FAIR will take place from Sunday to Wednesday, November 6 - 9.

We thank Mr. and Mrs. Nathan B. Kogan for their generous contribution of a magnificent sofa and two end tables for the High School Youth Lounge. This furniture is a welcome addition to the furnishing of the Youth Lounge and is greatly appreciated by the faculty and students of the High School.

Parents Association To Hold Two Open Meetings in Oct.

Parents Association invites all parents to attend two open meetings of special interest this month.

The first meeting will take place on Tuesday, October 4 at 8 P.M. and concerns itself with a topic of immediate interest to all parents: Discipline: A Loving and Practical Approach. Leading the discussion will be Nancy Samalin, M.S. Prof. Dipl., a long time student of Dr. Alice Ginott and Director of Parents Guidance Workshops. Ms. Samalin is also a faculty member in the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies.

The second meeting is a special Early Childhood Center event — a first — and will concern itself with "Applying to Kindergarten — Easing the Stress". This meeting will take place on Wednesday, October 12 at 8 P.M.

At both meetings there will be ample time for questions and give-and-take discussion.

Anniversary Celebration Of Liturgical Music Service

November 18 will mark the 40th anniversary of our annual Friday Evening Liturgical Music Service.

Instituted in 1943 by Hazzan David J. Putterman and Composer-Conductor Max Helfman, this Service has led to the creation of new music for the liturgy by more than 80 contemporary composers over the last 40 years. The concept of a service such as this has also brought to Park Avenue Synagogue world recognition in the field of Jewish music.

Plan now to be part of the 40th anniversary celebration on the evening of November 18. As special as these annual events have been in the past, the 40th anniversary will be more than special.

Reception and Exhibition of Reiss Paintings October 12

The congregation is invited to attend a reception and exhibition of paintings by the contemporary American artist Lionel S. Reiss on Wednesday, October 12, from 5 to 7 P.M. at the synagogue.

The twenty paintings now on display on the Lower Level consist of a modern interpretation of Genesis and are on loan to Park Avenue Synagogue by the artist. Desiring to keep the series intact, an effort is underway by the sponsoring committee to raise the necessary funds to acquire the series and make Park Avenue Synagogue the permanent home for the paintings.

Those attending the reception will have an opportunity to meet the artist. Mr. Reiss has worked in many mediums and received many honors in his long artistic career. His work is represented in major private and public collections. He is a member of the American Watercolor Society, Audobon Artists and the Poetry Society of America.
